

Aging

Quotations "I am not afraid of aging, but more afraid of people's reactions to my aging."

- Barbara Hershey

"Occasionally I've seen children become heavy-handed and insensitive when dealing with their aging parents, and it only caused resentment and hard feelings.

- Billy Graham

Questions

- Are there any benefits to growing old?
- Will people create a way to cheat aging and so never grow old?
- How does society view the way men and women age?
- Do you know any famous people who aged well?
- Does age bring wisdom?
- Should children support their elderly parents?
- Do you want to live forever? If not, how long?
- How old is the oldest person in the world? What is their secret to a long life?
- Can age change your perspective on the world?
- How do people feel about the old in your country?
- Are you able to make friends with people who are much older than you? Why?
- Should anti-aging products be illegal?

Presentation Create a presentation on the oldest person you personally know. It could be grandparents or a friend of the family.