

Entrepreneurs

Quotations "Entrepreneurs are misfits to the core. They forge ahead, making their own path and always, always, question the status quo."

- Maximillian Degenez

"Horses are like people - they have different personalities. They can be nice, friendly and hard-working, or awkward, difficult and lazy. If horses were people, some would be on the dole, and others would be entrepreneurs."

- Tony McCoy

Questions

- Entrepreneur, businessman, CEO, innovator, inventor. Are all of these types of people the same? Why or why not?
- Is there an entrepreneur who admire? What did they do that fascinates you?
- What are the risks and rewards of being an entrepreneur?
- Are you able to see or find good ideas? Can you share at least two?
- What is a booming business in your country right now?
- How do entrepreneurs find money for their ideas? Would you ever fund an entrepreneur?
- Do you have a high tolerance for risk? Would you survive being an entrepreneur?
- How do companies appeal to people? What are the general themes?
- Do entrepreneurs try to create a personality cult around their business?
- Can people be taught to be entrepreneurs?
- Can you name at least eight famous entrepreneurs in the world today?

Presentation Create a presentation focusing on a famous entrepreneur of the day. An example could be Elon Musk. Try to hone in on their skills, a summary of their life and their achievements.