

Europe

Quotations “We hope to see a Europe where men of every country will think of being a European as of belonging to their native land, and...wherever they go in this wide domain...will truly feel, ‘Here I am at home.’”

- Winston Churchill

“History is not always pessimistic for if World War II Europe has taught us anything it is that the rebuilding of cities is possible and the mending of a nation’s spirit can be achieved.”

- Aysa Taryam

Questions

- Have you ever visited Europe? Which countries have you visited? If not, would you like to visit? What countries would you like to visit?
- What are some of the most famous spots in Europe?
- Do you think there is a “European culture”? Which countries in Europe do you think have the most interesting culture?
- Imagine you are either transferred or have an opportunity to start a job in Europe. Which country would you choose to live in and why?
- What is some interesting European history that you know?
- Europe has vast landscapes and varying weather. If you chose to visit, which countries would you visit at what times of year?
- What do you think of people who backpack across Europe?
- Author and poet Santosh Kalwar said, “Asia is an entertainment, Europe is a dream, America is an imprisonment and Rest is a nightmare.” What do you think he means by this statement?

Presentation You have been given a free plane ticket to anywhere in Europe and 4 weeks to travel. Map out a trip across Europe. Which countries and cities would you visit? What places would you visit?